

Exhibitors Announced for Seventh Edition of Salon Art + Design

BY BLOUIN ARTINFO | JULY 19, 2018

“Fruiting Habits,” 2018, Jonathan Trayte [British, b. 1980], Powder-coated steel, polymer plaster, pigments, crushed marble, light fitting, fabric, 77.5 x 66.5 x 84 inches, 197 x 169 x 213 cm.,

Salon Art + Design announced its list of exhibitors for its forthcoming seventh edition. The fair will be held at Park Avenue Armory from November 8-12, 2018. Produced by Sanford Smith + Associates, it will showcase 56 galleries representing 11 countries, including 30 international galleries.

Following last year’s success that saw a footfall of more than 12,000 visitors, this year Salon Art + Design brings together a diverse and international group of art and design dealers. Apart from the 26 US exhibitors, it will also showcase a selection of European and international galleries from countries such as Belgium, France, Germany, Italy, Monaco, the Netherlands, South Africa, Spain, Sweden, and the United Kingdom. Classic designs by international 20th-century masters, as well as works by contemporary artists will be on offer at the fair. The works vary from classic and abstract antiquities to Art Nouveau, Deco, Mid-Century Modern and the 1970s, 1980s, and 1990s and concludes with the latest work of emerging masters.

This year, new names are added to the fair's list including Carolle Thibaut-Pomerantz (France), Chahan Gallery (France), Donzella (US), Galerie de la Beraudiere (Belgium), Galerie Hervout (France), Glass Past (US), Heller Gallery (US), Mouvements Moderns (France), Phoenix Ancient Art (Switzerland/US), Southern Guild (South Africa) and The Future Perfect (US). Returning galleries feature names such as Adrian Sassoon (UK), Galerie Chastel-Marechal (France), Bernard Goldberg Fine Arts (US), Galleria Rossella Colombari (Italy), Garrido Gallery (Spain), David Levy & Associates (Belgium), Priveekollektie Contemporary Art | Design (Netherlands), Demisch Danant (US), Friedman Benda (US), and Gallery FUMI (UK), among others.

The Salon will present several ancillary events supporting the main production and includes an exclusive book signing with renowned New Yorker and design authority, Wendy Moonan, in which she unveils her new book, New York Splendor: The City's Most Memorable Rooms. "In her elegant tone, Moonan ushers readers on a tour of some the city's finest private rooms, past and present," the fair adds.

The Salon Art + Design showcases historical, modern and contemporary furniture, groundbreaking design and late 19th through 21st-century art. "As The Salon's success is predicated on the quality of its galleries and the material they exhibit, we are proud to announce this outstanding lineup of exceptional exhibitors," says Executive Director Jill Bokor. "Few fairs today include the range of both fine and decorative arts found at The Salon. Recognizing the desire of collectors and interior designers to create environments rather than simply amass objects, The Salon exhibitors are chosen for their precise and creative way of presenting material that both predicts and reflects trends in the international culture of living. Ultimately, The Salon is curated on the premise that collectors and designers insist on a vibrant, uncommon array of styles, materials, and periods as long as the quality is impeccable."
