

Galerie

Live Artfully

Artists and Designers Making a Difference in the World Today

Fascinating Residences of Creative Luminaries

Inspiration for the New Home Office

FALL 2020
ISSUE N°19

THE POWER OF ART & DESIGN

Center Piece

A significant work of art has the ability to incite emotion and ignite conversation. Three leading designers share how they found inspiration in a beloved canvas

PRODUCED BY JACQUELINE TERREBONNE

ALFREDO PAREDES

Alfredo Paredes, the longtime design guru behind Ralph Lauren's home collection as well as the brand's restaurant and store interiors, has launched his own namesake studio. His flexibility with styles and eye for nuance will give a singular vision to a range of upcoming projects, including a private residence for a celebrity couple on the Baja California peninsula, a penthouse in Chelsea, and an upcoming furniture line with EJ Victor launching in 2021. alfredoparedesstudio.com

“Pat Steir’s work brings such electricity into a room. This one has a hot vibrancy that I imagined in a sunny library with a calm, neutral palette for a modern Hollywood Hills home.”

Artwork: Vibrating Blue and Red Waterfall (2016) by Pat Steir. Clockwise from top: Floatation chandelier by Ingo Maurer; ingo-maurer.com. Jacques Adnet armchair from Malson Gerard; maisongerard.com. Repose sofa by Okha; okha.com. Rug by Sacco Carpet; saccocarpet.com. Lamp by Natan Moss Ceramics; hollywoodathome.com. Stoneware bowl by Christiane Perrochon; marchsf.com. Trestle table by Blackcreek Mercantile & Trading Co.; monc13.com. Monolith cocktail table by Kaspar Hamacher; 1stdibs.com.

ARTWORK: TOM POWELL IMAGING, COURTESY OF LEVY GORRY; PORTRAIT: RICHARD PHIBBS; PRODUCTS: CLOCKWISE FROM TOP: COURTESY OF INGO MAURER; COURTESY OF MALSON GERARD; NEIL VOSLOO; COURTESY OF SACCO CARPET; COURTESY OF HOLLYWOOD AT HOME; COURTESY OF MARCH; COURTESY OF MONC13; COURTESY OF 1STDIBS